Surprise, Surprise

It's Peter's older cousin's high school graduation, so Peter and his cousin Daisy went shopping because they wanted to buy him a present. First, they went to the bookstore, but ... "I think Charlie wants a video game," said Peter. "There's a new store that sells video games," said Daisy. When they left the bookstore, Daisy saw a little cat. "Look, Peter!" She looked around for the cat's owner. "Come on," said Peter. "Let's get Charlie's present." They found a video game for Charlie. It was 20 dollars. They bought the video game and left. They decided to walk home. They talked about Charlie's high school graduation. They didn't see the little cat behind them. "We're home!" Charlie, Lily, and Sophie came to the door. "You bought Charlie a cat?" asked Sophie. "Oh, no! The cat followed us from the shopping mall," said Daisy. "We have a surprise for you, Mom!" said all the children at once.

Mom: Did you have a good day at school, Sam?

Sam: Yes and no. We worked on our gardening club project in class today.

Mom: That sounds interesting.

Sam: It was. We watched a video from a vlogger. He said he did a gardening project with his class at his school last year. They grew food to help other people. In the video, we saw students in Italy planting seeds and taking care of the plants.

Dad: That's great! All the kids working together. Did you work together?

Sam: Well, at first some people didn't want to grow flowers, and others didn't want to grow vegetables!

Mom: Oh dear. How did you solve the problem?

Sam: Our teacher said we could grow both flowers and vegetables in our garden!

Mom: That's a great solution!

Dad: Where did you get the seeds?

Sam: Mr. Smith went shopping for the seeds. Each person chose one type of seed. After that, we went outside to plant them in the school's garden.

Dad: What did you plant?

Sam: Tomatoes!
